Our Lady of Pity

Memories thickly throng around us . . .

As we here each other see . . .

For the tie that long has bound us . . .

Must in part dissevered be.

O Virgin Mother, Star of the Sea,
Thy children come on bended knee,
To beg thee for courage, guidance, and love;
Please, Mother, direct all our thoughts above.

Give us thy strength, thy wisdom deep and free;
Show us the way to a blessed eternity.
Give us thy faith and thy hope most sublime;
Inflame our hearts with charity like thine.

Inspire us in all we ever do and say;
Be thou our model in all our work and play.
Shield us from harm, from danger, and from sin;
Make us, thy children, ever more like Him.

Turn thou our hearts to high and noble goals;
Help us to save our own immortal souls.
Be with us in our needs whatever they may be,
We beg thee, Lovely Lady, lead us all to thee.

Our Model

Honored be those halls of learning . . .

Blessings on our teachers too . . .

On our lips their names shall linger

With affection strong and true.

Our Editor's Message

As we, the Senior Class of '53, go forth from our beloved Alma Mater, each on our own pathway of life, we solemnly promise that we will strive to maintain the noble ideals and high standards of character that have been taught us here in Our Lady of Pity High School.

It is our sincere desire that this issue of the "Stella Maris" may serve as a constant reminder of these ideals and standards as well as portray the fine record of our class and the many pleasant hours we spent together within these hallowed walls.

We would like to express our sincere appreciation to the following individuals who gave so generously of their much needed help toward this publication: to our advisor and teachers for their helpful advice and needed encouragement; to our photographer and printer for their prompt and efficient service; to our parents, friends, patrons, and advertisers whose kindly assistance and most necessary financial support was responsible for editing this issue of the "Stella Maris."

Class History

In September of 1949 we entered the famed halls of N. D. P. H. as shy and timid freshmen. We were frightened at the thought of meeting the upperclassmen especially the sophisticated seniors. It wasn't until after initiation that we began to feel at ease with them.

Parties and various activities helped to make the time pass so quickly, that before we realized it, we had come to the end of a successful freshman year.

In 1950 we received the title of sophomores which gave us a feeling of superiority for now we were no longer considered the lowly ones.

Initiation, Hallowe'en and Christmas Parties, the Yearbook Drive, as well as our annual High School Whist added to our social affairs. All our hard work, studies, and the rest brought this year to a happy end.

From the first day we began our junior year, we were happy because the long anticipated event, the Junior-Senior Prom, was finally approaching. This event proved to be outstanding.

At election time the members of our class to receive nominations were Yvonne Simard, Maurice Fontaine, Claire Sirois, and Louis Robillard.

The Hallowe'en Party and Class Day, both of which were sponsored by the junior class, showed that we could be a success in everything we undertook.

It was also during our memorable junior year that the question concerning school uniforms arose. How thrilling it was to don those long anticipated maroon uniforms for the first time in the history of our school!

Although our studies this year were by far the most difficult, we turned out to be the most accomplished juniors scholastically.

It seemed incredible when we returned to school in September of 1952 that we were now members of the senior class. Yes, our golden school days spent at N.D.P.H. were fleeing fast, and we were determined to make the most of them.

Class elections this year brought about the following results: Martin Losco, President; Louis Robillard, Vice-President; Claire Sirois, Secretary; and Elaine Williams, Treasurer. Then came along the election of the Yearbook Staff with Elaine Williams as Editor-in-Chief.

And now as we look back, we realize that our senior year was the happiest. In it we initiated the freshmen, we were hosts and hostesses at the Christmas Party, and we were sparkling "Kings" and "Queens" on the night of the Prom.

And shall we ever forget the glorious time we had when we visited the House of the Seven Gables? How thrilled we were as we went through the penny shop, the quaint old-fashioned kitchen, the parlor in which Judge Pyncheon breathed his last, the secret staircase, the summer house where Phoebe used to read to poor old Clifford, and finally the wishing well!

And then to top it off, we stopped at the Gardner Museum, where we marvelled at the exquisite beauty of the floral display and the artistic and costly murals that adorned the various walls.

Then class rings, pictures, and the Yearbook Drive followed, all bringing to mind our final step, graduation. And here we sit upon the stage each taking part in our last scene together. We eagerly await our prizes for work well done, work which will lead us to the road of success.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of 1953, being of questionably sound mind, due to so many interminable hours of homework and study, do hereby bequeath, this seventh day of June in the year of Our Lord, One Thousand Nine-Hundred and Fifty-Three, some portion of our superabundant erudition and perspicacity (a-hem!) to the following:

To the FATHERS OF THE PARISH we offer our profound gratitude for their devotedness and readiness in advising us whenever we are in need.

To our BELOVED TEACHERS, without whose help we would never have succeeded, we express our sincerest appreciation, and our everlasting thanks for the patience and understanding they have manifested through our four happy years spent at N. D. P. H.

To the JUNIORS we bequeath:

1. Seniority at last.
2. The privilege of leading in all our school activities.
3. The honor of occupying our seats.
4. Our unparalleled love of homework. (Did we ever have it?)
5. The hope that their Senior Year will be as happy as ours has been.

To the SOPHOMORES we leave the privilege of washing all the school windows and hope that they can do as good a job as we did.

To the FRESHMEN we will our high standards to live up to, and our directions for finding their way through the numerous corridors in the school.

Because of our excessive, overwhelming, and inexhaustible generosity we leave to individual Juniors the following:

Maurice Fontaine leaves his ability to ask questions in class to Jules Albert.

Donald Lemieux wills his unruffled way to Rose Lavallee.

Martin Losco leaves his wit, humor, and magnetic laugh along with the office of president to Jeannette Robichaud.

Louis Robillard bequeaths his curly eyelashes and his love of sports to Doris Theriault.

Paul Soulard leaves his list of excuses and genial character to John Rexford.

Annette Breton wills her ability in sports and her sparkling personality to Mary T. Fahey.

Irene Caissie leaves her quiet disposition to Joan Coughlin and reluctantly parts with her sweater for any chilly underclassman.

Lillian Gallant leaves her refinement, her well-modulated voice, and her multitudinous erasures in typing to Marie Benoit.

Jeannette Gervais bequeaths her love of study and her place on the honor roll to her sister Rita.

Anita Landry leaves her old shorthand pads to the Sampson Twins.

Yvonne Mailhiot leaves her black hair and dark eyes to Annette St. Pierre.

Barbara Nauss bequeaths her witty comments and her irrepressible laugh to Elaine Canniff.

Phyllis Nickerson leaves her counter at Grant's to Phyllis Doucet.

Lillian Paquet leaves her stature to Charles Hart and a package of bubble gum to anyone who dares to chew it.

Barbara Rigazio wills her long walk to school to Mary C. Fahey and her seat at the piano to Virginia Drolet.

Janice Roberts wills her love of science to Helen M. Arnott.

Yvonne Simard bequeaths her soda fountain at Zahka's and her NOTRE DAME jacket to Robert Goulet.

Claire Sirois leaves her contagious giggle to Lorraine Sevigny and her dangling earrings to Natalie Brooks.

Marie Terrio wills her excellent marks in school and her baby-sitting jobs to Georgette Bergeron.

Elaine Williams bequeaths her beanie to Owen Johnson, and to the future treasurer of the Senior Class her ability to extricate weekly dues on time.

This will, being approved by the Senior Class of 1953, is drawn up with the purpose of being read and delivered to those whom we leave behind, in this our school, Our Lady of Pity High.
